LARCH SEASON IN LAKE LOUISE

There is a special time of year in the heart of the Canadian Rockies when the needles of the forest-green larches turn to a beautifully bright gold. In mid-to-late September, hikers flock to the mountains to experience the spectacular display of golden larches across Banff National Park's trails. Lake Louise is one of the premier locations for larch spotting in the Rockies, and we are providing you some of the best trails to view these natural golden wonders.

LARCH VALLEY & SENTINEL PASS | FULL DAY HIKE
It should come as no surprise that the most popular hiking trail during larch season is Larch Valley at Moraine Lake. Guests of Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise can book onto our Moraine Lake Shuttle and hike up to the famed golden trail with minimal fuss. The trail is rated as difficult, but the reward is worth the work!

CONSOLATION LAKES | HALF DAY HIKE
If you want to hike around Moraine Lake but are looking for a hike that is a little more low-key, Consolation Lakes is perfect. This 5.8 km out and back trail is a great family-friendly hike that offers amazing larch and lake views with minimal elevation gain.

LAKE AGNES | HALF DAY HIKE
The Lake Agnes trail head is to the right of the hotel, only minutes from your room! It is rated as moderate difficulty and is about 2.5 – 3 hours round trip. The views from this trail will leave you in awe, and the larches make the already-spectacular Lake Agnes even more jaw-dropping.

SADDLEBACK | HALF DAY HIKE
If you're looking for a slightly more challenging hike up to see the larches, Saddleback is for you. The trail head is next to our Boathouse (to the left of the hotel, again right at our doorstep!) and brings you up into Paradise Valley where you'll find yourself surrounded by golden larches and panoramic mountain views.

MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE PROGRAM

WELCOME TO OUR BASECAMP TO ADVENTURE

Watch the landscape transform as golden larches and crisp mountain air signal the arrival of fall in Lake Louise. This breathtaking time of year offers a truly spectacular backdrop for exploration. The Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise proudly continues its tradition of guided alpine experiences, led by accredited professionals who know these trails like home. Whether you're seeking a relaxed walk through a forest of autumn colour or an exhilarating full-day trek above the treeline, we offer a range of guided hikes designed to suit all skill levels. Choose from private or group adventures and immerse yourself in the unforgettable beauty of the Rockies in fall.

Looking for guidance on what would be the best hike for you? Please send us an email at heritage.guides@fairmont.com

WHAT TO BRING

Keep your energy levels high by staying hydrated and fueling your body throughout your hike. Water is essential on every trail, so be sure to bring plenty with you. For half-day hikes, we recommend packing light snacks such as energy or protein bars, trail mix, nuts or fresh or dried fruit. If you're heading out on a full-day adventure, a packed lunch is highly recommended. Our wonderful Guides Pantry Team offers a selection of convenient grab-and-go options, perfect for enjoying on the trail. If your hike includes a mountain tea house, we recommend bringing cash. While card payments are often accepted, connectivity in alpine areas can occasionally be unreliable, and having cash on hand helps ensure you won't miss out on a well-earned treat or warm drink.

MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE GUIDES

Join one of our accredited professional guides for a spectacular hike in the local area. Choose from an easy walk like Consolation Lakes or one of the famous teahouse hikes or challenge yourself on a local summit. Please note, all programs vary based on day of the week and current trail conditions.

You can find the program schedule and pricing through your personalized UrVenue link.
