LARCH SEASON IN LAKE LOUISE

There is a special time of year in the heart of the Canadian Rockies when the needles of the forest-green larches turn to a beautifully bright gold. In mid-to-late September, hikers flock to the mountains to experience the spectacular display of golden larches across Banff National Park's trails. Lake Louise is one of the premier locations for larch spotting in the Rockies, and we are providing you some of the best trails to view these natural golden wonders.

LARCH VALLEY & SENTINEL PASS

It should come as no surprise that the most popular hiking trail during larch season is Larch Valley at Moraine Lake. Guests of Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise can book onto our Moraine Lake Shuttle and hike up to the famed golden trail with minimal fuss. The trail is rated as difficult, but the reward is worth the work!

CONSOLATION LAKES

If you want to hike around Moraine Lake but are looking for a hike that is a little more low-key, Consolation Lakes is perfect. This 5.8 km out and back trail is a great family-friendly hike that offers amazing larch and lake views with minimal elevation gain.

LAKE AGNES

The Lake Agnes trail head is to the right of the hotel, only minutes from your room! It is rated as moderate difficulty and is about 2.5 – 3 hours round trip. The views from this trail will leave you in awe, and the larches make the already-spectacular Lake Agnes even more jaw-dropping.

SADDLEBACK

If you're looking for a slightly more challenging hike up to see the larches, Saddleback is for you. The trail head is next to our Boathouse (to the left of the hotel, again right at our doorstep!) and brings you up into Paradise Valley where you'll find yourself surrounded by golden larches and panoramic mountain views.

MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE PROGRAM
