LARCH SEASON IN LAKE LOUISE

There is a special time of year in the heart of the Canadian Rockies when the needles of the forest-green larches turn to a beautifully bright gold. In mid-to-late September, hikers flock to the mountains to experience the spectacular display of golden larches across Banff National Park's trails. Lake Louise is one of the premier locations for larch spotting in the Rockies, and we are providing you some of the best trails to view these natural golden wonders.

LARCH VALLEY & SENTINEL PASS | FULL DAY HIKE

It should come as no surprise that the most popular hiking trail during larch season is Larch Valley at Moraine Lake. Guests of Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise can book onto our Moraine Lake Shuttle and hike up to the famed golden trail with minimal fuss. The trail is rated as difficult, but the reward is worth the work!

CONSOLATION LAKES | HALF DAY HIKE

If you want to hike around Moraine Lake but are looking for a hike that is a little more low-key, Consolation Lakes is perfect. This 5.8 km out and back trail is a great family-friendly hike that offers amazing larch and lake views with minimal elevation gain.

LAKE AGNES | HALF DAY HIKE

The Lake Agnes trail head is to the right of the hotel, only minutes from your room! It is rated as moderate difficulty and is about 2.5 – 3 hours round trip. The views from this trail will leave you in awe, and the larches make the already-spectacular Lake Agnes even more jaw-dropping.

SADDLEBACK | HALF DAY HIKE

If you're looking for a slightly more challenging hike up to see the larches, Saddleback is for you. The trail head is next to our Boathouse (to the left of the hotel, again right at our doorstep!) and brings you up into Paradise Valley where you'll find yourself surrounded by golden larches and panoramic mountain views.

MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE PROGRAM

WELCOME TO OUR BASECAMP TO ADVENTURE

Experience fall in Lake Louise as golden larches and crisp mountain air transform the landscape. Our accredited guides lead hikes for all skill levels, from relaxed walks through autumn forests to full-day alpine adventures. Choose a private or group experience and explore the Rockies at their most spectacular.

Looking for guidance on what would be the best hike for you? Please send us an email at heritage.guides@fairmont.com

WHAT TO BRING

Stay energized and hydrated throughout your hike by bringing plenty of water and snacks. For half-day hikes, pack light options such as energy bars, trail mix, nuts, or fresh or dried fruit. For full-day adventures, a packed lunch is recommended, with convenient grab-and-go options available from our Guides Pantry Team.

Planning to visit a mountain tea house? Bring some cash, as connectivity in alpine areas can be unreliable and card payments may not always be available.

WHAT TO WEAR

You don't need special gear to enjoy the mountains. Dress in layers with a light sweater, hiking pants, a wind and waterproof jacket, hat, and sunglasses. Wear proper hiking footwear, and don't forget water and your camera.

You can find the program schedule and pricing through your personalized UrVenue link.
